Fact signing May Signal More Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson announced today that the United States and the Soviet Union have agreed to start talks "in the near future" on limiting offensive and defensive nuclear missile systems.

Johnson chose the occasion of the signing of the historic nuclear Nonproliferation Treaty at the White House to make his announcement.

White House officials reported 51 nations were joining the pact, to ban the spread of atomic weapons.

Signing ceremonies were conducted also in London and Moscow.

Hours before President Johnson spoke, Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin announced in Moscow that the Soviet Union wants to hold international talks on disarmament, including a halt in the manufacture of nuclear weapons and reduction of nuclear weapon stockpiles.

Kosygin also proposed discussions on limitation and reduction of "means of delivery of strategic weapons."

The premier attacked the United States. He said the need to eliminate foreign military bases, one of the Russian proposals, "is convincingly proved by the continued aggressive war of the U.S.A. in Vietnam."

In London, Prime Minister Harold Wilson, presiding at the signing ceremony there, called the treaty: "The most important measure of arms control and disarmament on which agreement has yet been reached."

Wilson pledged that Britain would continue "with renewed confidence and renewed hope to work for further advances in disarmament." Johnson, in his remarks, referred to the long U.S. effort to start discussions on cutting back the costly nuclear arms race. Moscow had indicated last Thursday that the Soviets were finally ready for such talks.

Developments Politically Over Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Here is a roundup of top political developments.

The Democrats: Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy says he could support GOP contender Nelson A. Rockefeller for president, subject to several conditions. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey aides say they're working to ward off any possibility of a third party split by McCarthy backers.

The Republicans: New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says rival Richard M. Nixon doesn't have GOP presidential nomination assured; says a third of Nixon's delegates could switch under uncertainty of Nixon's ability to win in November.

Wallace: Third party presidential candidate George C. Wallace denies any racist philosophy—saying his programs would benefit all Americans—and says no White backlash vote exists in the country.

Collision Is Fatal at Ogden

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A pickup truck-car collision on U.S. 71 in the Little River County town of Ogden claimed two lives Sunday, raising to six the number of persons killed in weekend traffic accidents in Arkansas.

State Police identified the victims of the Ogden accident as William J. Thompson, 21, and Doris L. Hopkins, 32, both of Texarkana. Officers said they were alone in the vehicles, with Thompson driving the truck.

Steel Lavelle McCauley, 21, of Paris was killed Sunday in a two-car collision in Paris. Officers said Jamie Hickson, 23, also of Paris and the driver of the other car, was critically injured.

University at Berkeley Sealed Off

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — A curfew virtually sealed off this University of California community during the night after police broke up a mass demonstration, freeing Mayor Walter Johnson from a hostile crowd.

Johnson was pushed and spat upon by some who recognized him after he had gone to the gathering of 1,000 to 1,500 to assess the situation.

It was after his encounter with the crowd at the Civic Center Park about 300 yards from City Hall that the 7 p.m.-to 6 a.m. curfew was extended from a 56-block area to the entire city.

Police arrested 50 to 60 persons on charges ranging from disturbing the peace to looting, resisting arrest and carrying illegal weapons.

There were no reports of injuries during the night but police said 31 demonstrators and 11 officers had been injured on the previous two nights of demonstrations.

The dusk-to-dawn curfew sealed off the community of 120,000 to all except those who could show reason for entering.

Police Chief William Beall said most of those arrested

Bombing Letup Seems to Have Eased the Viet Cong's Food Problem

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. intelligence reports indicate North Vietnam's food problems may be easing because much of the country is free from U.S. bombing.

Analysts say there is evidence that thousands of North Vietnamese civilians, mobilized during the bombings to repair roads and railroads, are returning to farming.

U.S. reconnaissance has detected intensive farming on rice lands in the Red River Delta which lay fallow during the bombing period because, analysts said, the peasants were used to keep supply routes open.

For more than a year, North Vietnam reportedly has been sustained by wheat and wheat flour shipments, mostly from LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's statement that he could support Republican Nelson A. Rockefeller for president subject to several conditions has brought varied reactions from Arkansas political leaders.

"I think McCarthy will have to start making his arrangements because I think (Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey) has got the nomination cinched," said Leon Catlett, chairman of the state Democratic party.

"I feel positive he'll (Humphrey) get the Arkansas delegation and I think he'll win the nomination and the election," Catlett added. "I think it's all over."

Catlett also said he believed the Democratic presidential hopeful's statement would have little bearing because it also appeared that former Vice President Richard M. Nixon would win the GOP nomination.

"It's a strange statement to make at this stage of the game," said Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, brother of the New York governor who came to Little Rock during the weekend courting the state's delegation to the GOP National Convention.

"I can't tell you at this stage whether it will help or hurt Nelson," the Arkansas governor added.

"Since Nelson has been described as a liberal Republican,

N. Vietnam Hit by U.S. Bombers

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — American B52 bombers raided North Vietnam today for the first time in nearly two months and also dropped thousands of tons of explosives on secret Viet Cong bases in the provinces around Saigon.

Twenty-five of the U.S. Air Force's biggest bombers streaked over the northern half of the demilitarized zone and the southernmost part of North Vietnam to bomb coastal artillery sites which have been shelling U.S. destroyers and cruisers operating off the coast.

The key strike inside North Vietnam was around Cape Lay, 11 miles above the allied base at Gio Linh.

The B52s last attacked inside North Vietnam on May 18.

The big bombers also kept on pounding enemy concentrations outside Saigon as part of the campaign against a major new attack expected on the capital. Police sources said they had fresh intelligence reports that the Communist command has ordered Viet Cong and North Vietnamese regulars to regroup at secret bases in the area, some as far as 75 miles away from the capital, to prepare for a full-scale attack this month.

Ten of the eight-jet bombers attacked some of the enemy's largest base camps in Tay Ninh, a longtime Viet Cong stronghold along the Cambodian border 47 miles northwest of Saigon. Military strategists consider Tay Ninh a potential springboard for the third offensive against Saigon.

Fifteen B52s pounded other camps in Hau Nghia and Binh Duong provinces, which form a border triangle with Tay Ninh northwest of the city.

Another 15 bombers hammered enemy troop concentrations in Long Khanh Province, reportedly the headquarters of the North Vietnamese 5th Division 57 miles from Saigon.

TFC Chairman Paul Rand Dixon said he would have no comment on the Newsweek story. In answer to a question, he said that the FTC had no legal power to bar cigarette advertising.

Soviet MIGs Force Down Troop Plane

WASHINGTON (AP) — An airliner carrying 214 U.S. servicemen to Vietnam is being held today on a Soviet island in the Pacific Ocean after being forced to land by MIG fighters.

The chartered DC-8 was on its way to Vietnam from McChord Air Base in Seattle, Wash., Sunday when, the U.S. government said, it strayed off course and was forced to land on Thurup Island, a part of the Kuril chain in the northern Pacific.

The State Department immediately contacted the Soviet embassy in Washington and urged the quick release of the plane, its passengers and the 17 crewmen.

A Japanese air force radar station said it began tracking the plane at 7:30 p.m. EDT Sunday and warned the pilot he was on a course that would cross the Soviet-held island.

The pilot replied, "We cannot alter our course," Japanese sources said, indicating the plane already was under MIG escort.

The sources said the plane was tracked another five minutes before it disappeared from radar screens at a position about 30 miles south of Thurup Island.

U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson said in Moscow he was told by Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin and First Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov the incident is under investigation.

The Pentagon said the pilot of the chartered Seaboard World Airlines jet, Joseph Tosolini, talked by radio with another American aircraft during the incident.

SHOWERS ARE Expected
in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Showers and thunderstorms are expected to blanket most of Arkansas through tonight, but followed immediately by fair skies and warm temperatures.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said a cold front that stretches from the Great Lakes to Missouri is moving southward into Arkansas, bringing the shower activity.

However, a high pressure system behind the front is expected to move rapidly into the state after the frontal passage.

Very little temperature change is expected with change in air mass.

Low temperatures reported around the state this morning ranged from 69 degrees at Harrison to 76 at Fort Smith. Lows reported Sunday ranged from 86 at Fayetteville to 97 at Blytheville.

The only rainfall reported around the state in the 24-hour period which ended at 7:30 a.m. today was .63 at Harrison.

Party Unity Is Plea of Republicans

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Republican State Committee completed its selection of delegates to the GOP National Convention at Miami Beach, Fla., here Saturday and Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller then made a plea for party unity on the state and national level.

"We've got to be unified as we come into the stretch of 1968," Rockefeller said.

Rockefeller favors the presidential nomination of his brother,
New York Gov. Nelson A.
Rockefeller, but one delegate speculated that Arkansas will vote 10-8 in favor of former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Travis Beeson of Camden, a national delegate and Arkansas campaign manager for Nixon, said he does not expect the state delegation to vote as a unit, but that he does not intend to pressure Rockefeller supporters into changing their minds.

"Nixon will be nominated on the first ballot," he said.

It took two hours for the convention to name the 10 additional delegates. Despite much discussion over nominees, the only debate was in the election between Dr. Omar Bradsher of Paragould and James Hurley of Springdale.

Bradsher won the election after two stand-up votes, a show of hands and a roll call vote.
Delegates elected were: Gov.
Winthrop Rockefeller, Mrs.
Frank McGillicuddy of Little Rock, Odell Pollard of Searcy,
Jim Binder of Little Rock, Lynn Lowe of Texarkana, Howard
Vance of Walnut Ridge, Mrs.
Dorothy Stuck of Marked Tree,
Mrs. Robert Webb of Little Rock, Dr. Omar Bradsher of Paragould and E. M. Moore of Jefferson County.

Alternates were: Mrs. Betty Bernard of Earle, Lt. Gov.
Maurice (Footsie) Britt of Little Rock, Sarah Joe Bell of Harrison, Richard Butler Jr. of Little Rock, George Nowotny of Fort Smith, Frank Gray of Desha County, Mrs. Thelma James-son of Camden, Mrs. Betty Welch of Newport, Hoyt Greenwood of Fayetteville and Circuit Judge Henry Britt of Hot Springs.

Eight delegates, including four Negroes, that were elected two weeks ago, were approved Saturday.

Rockefeller and Mrs. McGillicuddy were named national committee members.

Secret Service Jail Two in Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Secret Service agents picked up two men in Little Rock while Republican presidential hopeful Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York visited here Friday and Saturday, according to Gov.
Winthrop Rockefeller.

The Arkansas governor described both men as "sick."

One man was reportedly detained at the airport, and another at the state Capitol.

"One wanted to get rid of both Nelson and me because he said we were communists," Rockefeller said. "My answer to that was that if we were communists then the communists never had it so good."

"discourages many capable citi-meeting, and in addition to local members, he welcomed visiting Rotarian John T. McRae of Prescott.

mittee of the Legislature consist-does it make him more liberal than they already brand him to have McCarthy make such a statement?" Rockefeller asked.

"It's difficult to assess at this time."

McCarthy made his statement before Michigan's national convention delegation Sunday, saying he could not support Humphrey if the vice president does not change his stand on Vietnam and other issues.

Ted Lamb, the Little Rock attorney who is heading the Mc-Carthy campaign in Arkansas, said he would have no comment on the statement until he has an opportunity to talk with Mc-Carthy headquarters to get a copy of McCarthy's full statement.

Lamb did say that he believed McCarthy was doing well in Arkansas and that the state's uncommitted delegation to the national convention in Chicago "is encouraging to me."

"I think that the traditional Democratic leadership had better pay attention to the voices of the party that have spoken in the primaries," Lamb said.
"If they don't, I think the party will be in trouble in November."

Former Gov. Sid McMath, who will be a delegation to the Democratic convention, said he didn't believe either McCarthy or Rockefeller "have a real serious chance of getting the nominations."

"I'd have no objection to Mc-Carthy supporting Rockefeller if he got the nomination," Mc-Math said.
McMath, a general in the Marine Reserves and a hawk on the Vietnam War issue, said,
"McCarthy's program as far as the war is concerned is completely unrealistic."

Resigns Church Council Post

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rev.
John Norton Williams, executive secretary of the Arkansas Council of Churches, has resigned to return to Indiana, where he served as a Christian Church (Disciples of Christ)

Alabama Fugitive Arrested

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP) — A young Alabama fugitive, wielding a submachine gun and a pistol was seriously injured and his woman companion was killed Sunday by police staked out at the home of a prominent Jewish businessman to guard against nightriders.

Police Chief C. L. "Roy"
Gunn said he believed that 11 recent acts of violence in Meridian have been solved with the arrest of 22-year-old Thomas Albert Tarrants III of Mobile, Ala.

He said Tarrants also has been sought in connection with other bombing incidents in Mississippi.

Tarrants was charged in a warrant with the attempted murder of Patrolman J. M.
Hatcher, 31, wounded four times in the stomach and chest, during a high-speed chase.

One of the bullets pierced Hatcher's heart.

Found shot to death on the floorboard of Tarrants' car was his companion, identified as Kathy Ainsworth, 26, a fifth grade school teacher in Jackson, Miss.

A neighbor who went outside to see what was going on was hit in a spray of bullets. He is Navy Machinists Mate 2nd Class Robert E. Burton, formerly of Fulton, Mo. Hatcher and Burton were hospitalized in critical condition.

The shooting started at 1 a.m.
Sunday at the ranch-style home of Meyer Davidson, 51, who led in raising a $75,000 reward for information in the bombing of Temple Beth Israel in Meridian earlier this year.

VFW Opposes Federal Gun Laws

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Department of the Veterans of Foreign Wars adopted a resolution opposing federal gun control legislation, convention officials said Sunday.

"We believe that the right of Americans to own and possess firearms should not be regulated by the United States government," the resolution said.
"We recognize the communist threat to a disarmed citizen."

Long Range Diagnosis

BOSTON (AP) — Television has been used by a doctor to interview, examine and diagnose a patient miles away.

Massachusetts General Hospital demonstrated the new technique Saturday. A doctor at the hospital and a volunteer patient three miles away saw each other on television screens and spoke over a radio hookup.

The doctor used his television screen to view charts, X-rays and electrocardiograms. Aided by a nurse with the patient, the doctor got direct readings of blood pressure, heart beat, pulse and respiration.

Dr. Kenneth T. Bird, associate physician at the hospital, developed the television technique and called it an extension of the usefulness of the physician."

Sees Economy Slack During Rest of Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — A panel of business economists says the country's current economic boom will slacken in the second half of this year.

However, Tilford C. Graines, vice president and economist for Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co., of New York, says the demand for credit will remain high and "interest rates should remain close to present high levels for most of the balance of this year."

He said the nation's inflation and balance of payments problems are so severe that the Federal Reserve System will continue to keep a tight rein on credit until it's convinced higher taxes are slowing the economy.

who appeared Sunday at a business outlook conference sponsored by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Six Barge Lines Ready to Operate

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Six barge lines that have been recommended for common carrier permits to operate on the Arkansas River are already soliciting Arkansas industrial firms for their business.

The barge lines are not looking for an immediate boom when the river opens for navigation upstream to Little Rock in December, but want to have a solid base of customers they can build from.

Recommended as carriers by the Interstate Commerce Commission in April were: The Valley Line Company of St. Louis, American Commercial Barge
Line Co. of Jeffersonville, Ind., Federal Barge Lines of St.
Louis, A. L. Mechling Barge
Lines of Joliet, Ill., Union Barge Line Corp. of Pittsburg and the Sioux City and New Orleans Barge Lines of Houston.

The barge lines, operating on the assumption the recommendations will be approved by the commission, are calling on businessmen individually, but The Valley Line Co., tried the group approach last week by hosting steak dinners at Pine Bluff and Little Rock for industrialists and port authority officials.

were not from Berkeley and to his knowledge no students from the University of California at Berkeley were taken into custody.

Police reinforced by 450 state highway patrolmen, with units from nearby cities standing by, broke up a demonstration that had formed at Civic Center just outside the curfew area.

There were no reports of tear gas used, as had been the case in the more violent clashes on Friday and Saturday nights.

Beall said that a number of windows were broken and a few cases of looting were reported after the crowd dispersed.

When this occurred, city officials decided to extend the cur-few to cover the entire city, he said.

The city's troubles started Friday night when the Young Socialist Alliance spearheaded a demonstration which it said was, in support of student strikers in France and the rest of Europe and in protest against the Vietnam war and police actions.

Activist Peter Camejo, a former University of California student, said the Saturday rally stemmed from reaction to police clearing the streets after the previous night's demonstration.

Saturday's disturbance was marked by firebombing, rock throwing, window breaking and other vandalism.

Riot-equipped officers moved in with tear gas and cleared the area and arrested 13 persons.

Hostesses were Mrs. Feld, Mrs. William Butler, and Mrs. Fred Robertson of Minden, La. The honoree wore beige lace and pinned a yellow orchid at her shoulder. Mrs. Jack Fielding, mother of the bride-elect, had a fleur d'amour corsage, and Miss Fielding's grandmothers, Mrs. Cora Fielding and Mrs. E. S. Franklin, each wore carnations.

Beautiful floral arrangements were seen throughout the home. In the dining room the table was overlaid with a linen and lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of a variety of flowers in shades of pink, blue, and white flanked by pink tapers. Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Actresses love to play nuns. The habits are dramatic and women look marvelous in them.

Marge Redmond, however, isn't all that crazy about the floating robes and the white, starched headresses. They are, she has found, an effective disguise—too effective, in fact.

"The robes are loose, and they practically invite you to be careless about desserts and raiding the ice box," she reflected. "Nobody can see any extra pounds."

A candidate for an Emmy this season for her work as Sister Jacqueline in ABC's "The Flying Nun," Marge reports sadly that she can walk down any street and shop in any store and the most recognition she gets is a sort of vague "Don't I know you from somewhere?" look.

And the somewhere, she insists, is not "The Flying Nun," but the commercials. Before Marge got her habit, she was one of Madison Avenue's favorite saleswomen. She was a harried housewife who mopped, scrubbed, ironed, shopped and nagged the kids, all to pitch the household product.

No sex kitten of the commercials like Barbara Feldon or Pam Austin who also slipped into television by the same backdoor, Marge played Everywoman so successfully that once she was the star of five commercials as many different sponsors at one time.

CBS wound up its three-part "The Cities" Wednesday night with some crystal ball gazing into the future and emphasizing the ideas of the urban planner.

It was an ambitious effort but hardly the over-all report promised on the ailments afflicting the population centers. The three hours were primarily concerned with the problems of city slums and their inhabitants.

FASHION TIPS

Choose Colors Carefully

How do you choose the color of your clothes? To follow the fashion trends too closely is not always wise. A color that's right for someone else may not be right for you. Choose shades that are most becoming to your own hair and complexion. Test your color-type by tucking fabrics of assorted hues under your chin (in the daylight). Stay with the ones that are most flattering.

Pope Talks About Changes in Church

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI, expressing disquiet over the "passion for change and novelty" in the Roman Catholic Church, has appealed to believers to abide by church dogma on issues ranging from papal infallibility to original sin. In his most comprehensive pronouncement on faith, delivered before a large throng in St. Peter's Square Sunday, the pontiff noted unrest in "certain modern quarters" of the church.

To the priests of the world, many of whom "feel that they have been thrust aside by modern social developments," he reaffirmed the importance of clerical celibacy and the priests' role among young people and workers.

The Pope delivered a 3,000-word "Credo of the People of God" and a separate 1,500-word message for priests on the fifth anniversary of his coronation and at the closing ceremony of the Year of Faith. It was greeted by thunderous applause.

"We have wished our profession of faith to be to a high degree complete and explicit, in order that it may respond in a fitting way to the need of light felt by so many faithful souls," the Pope said.

He reaffirmed faith in the concept of original sin as common in all men, the virginity of Mary and her role in the Church's moral life, Jesus Christ as the son of God, the mystery of the Trinity and the oneness of God.

The pontiff cited the importance of baptism, the Roman Catholic Church as the only true church, the need for a church hierarchy, infallibility of the Pope and of bishops as a body under the pontiff, the Mass as a real re-enactment of Christ's death, the Eucharist as the true body and blood of Jesus and the existence of Paradise, Purgatory and Hell.

Oswald: "When you have to choose between two suits to attack, you may have to decide by sheer guesswork but most of the time there is some guideline. You try the suit that promises the greater reward if your play works or if each suit promises the same reward you try the one that allows you to reserve the other suit play for later."

Jim: "Here is a hand which illustrates the latter role. Most players who tried the club finesse wound up down one."

Oswald: "This hand really is a good example. I can imagine the successful declarer complaining that their finessses never win."

Jim: "Part of the trouble here is that most people don't realize just what a finesse is. For instance, the lead of a spade from dummy up to the king would be just as much a finesse as the lead of a club up to the ace-queen. The club finesse allows declarer to make a trick with his queen if East holds the king. The spade finesse allows the king to make a trick if East holds the ace."

Oswald: "Perhaps it would simplify matters if we defined a finesse as the attempt to make a trick with a card by leading up to it when the card would not take the trick if you led it."

Jim: "Or maybe we should define a finesse as an attempt to make a card do the work of a higher card because of its position."

Oswald: "Whatever definition you use, it should be obvious that if South starts his finessing by leading a club he will lose his contract any time West holds the king of the suit, since he will have a sure spade loser later. If he starts by leading a spade toward his king and West holds the ace, he will lose that trick but still have a chance to try the club finesse. If East holds the ace of spades South will be able to discard one of dummy's clubs on the king of spades and make his contract without the club finesse."

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Böttel

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT! This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

NEVER UNDERESTIMATE THE POWER OF WOMEN: PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SOCIAL SECURITY ACT WOULD AID WORKING WIVES.

Dear Helen: "WORKING WIVES" letter which appeared in your column on May 1 only echoes what I and many other working wives have been complaining about for years.

(NOTE FROM H: I'll repeat the complaint for those who came in late: The law now says that when a working wife and her husband retire, she may either have approximately one-half of his Social Security pension—the amount to which she is entitled as a wife—or her own pension, as a worker, which is greater. But she always forfeits one to take the other. Too often this means the wife donates all, or a major part of her "withholding" to the Government.)

Though we don't begrudge the dependent wife's allotment, we maintain we are penalized under the present Social Security Act for being married working women.

We're tired of paying many hundreds of dollars into Social Security, then, because we're married, forfeiting our insurance.

I wrote to my Congressman as you suggested, Helen. I hope many others did too—and that something will be done.—ANOTHER ONE OF "US"

Dear "Us": They did! And it has!

Because of your combined efforts, a new bill is before Congress.

I'm happy to print a letter from the Honorable Edward J. Patten, Representative, 15th District, New Jersey. It proves again that when women pull together, we make things happen!

"Dear Mrs. Böttel: As a result of the column which you wrote in the Star Ledger (Newark, N.J.) entitled 'WORKING WIVES WANT THEIR BENEFITS,' a number of women had written to me relative to introducing a bill in the Congress to correct this inequity. Enclosed herewith is a copy of the bill which I introduced in the House on May 27th, 1968, and a copy of my statement that appeared in the Congressional Record. 'You have indeed performed a public service by getting these women united in their quest for equal rights. Sincerely, EDWARD J. PATTEN, CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, WASHINGTON, D.C.'"

Here is an excerpt from Congressman Patten's statement in the Congressional Record: "Mr. Speaker, with all the concern of equality of benefits for women, I think it is appropriate for the Congress to give serious consideration to an amendment of the Social Security Law which would provide wives that work with the opportunity to receive proportionate benefits for the amount that they have contributed to the fund."

This bill would amend the present law and thus provide the payment of benefits to a married couple based on their combined earnings record where that method of computation would produce a higher combined benefit."

So there it is, W.W.'s—a bill work. Whether or not Congress acts favorably on such an amendment to the Social Security Law is largely up to YOU. Write two letters TODAY—before you forget—urging consideration of H.R. 17532, now before the Ways and Means Committee, which will help correct the inequity in the Social Security Act, as concerns employed married women. Send one letter to the Congressman from your local district, and the other to the Honorable Edward J. Patten, House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., 20515. Ask your married friends to do likewise. . . . And never again underestimate the power of women!—H.

A lot of thingsirk Leo Durocher. One of them is a lack of hustle from his Chicago Cubs.

The Lip decided to do something about it Saturday—he slapped a $200 fine on one of his players for loafing on the base paths.

Every single Cub hustled Sunday... all the way to a 6-2 conquest of St. Louis' National League leaders. It was the second victory in the three-game series for Chicago, loser of 11 of 12 games before the Cardinals came to town.

But St. Louis held on to its 6½ game lead as Cincinnati whipped San Francisco 5-3 and Los Angeles edged Atlanta 3-2. In other games, New York nipped Houston 1-0 and Pittsburgh stopped Philadelphia 5-2.

Chicago trounced first-place Detroit 12-0, California sailed past Washington 8-4, Baltimore beat Minnesota 6-4, New York checked Oakland 4-2 and Cleveland stopped Boston 7-5 in 10 innings in the American League.

What made the Cubs' victory especially sweet was that it came against Steve Carlton. The left-hander, who had banished the Cubs twice earlier this season including once on a one-hitter, was the victim of a three-run uprising in the first inning, then was chased with two more in the fifth.

4 Arkansans Qualify in Tournament

CHEROKEE VILLAGE, Ark. (AP) — Four Arkansans qualified Saturday for the National Jaycee Junior Golf Tournament to be held at Tulsa next month.

Lane Chilcott of Crossett shot a two-over-par-74 for a 36-hole total of 150 to lead the qualifiers in the Arkansas State Jaycee Junior tournament here. Other qualifiers were Mike Craven of Texarkana with a 76-75-151, Tom Schrader of Hot Springs with a 75-77-152 and Jack Young of Fayetteville with a 76-78-154.

To qualify as a chronometer, a Swiss watch must not lose as many as three seconds a day or gain 12 seconds.

A Paleontologist's Eye on a Golfer

By IRA BERKOW
NEA Sports Writer
ROCHESTER, N.Y. (NEA) — The well-turned blonde in blue-and-white print suit stood tiptoe in white golf shoes amidst the gallery engulfing the green. And what she saw embarrassed her.

Bob Dickson's bride, Carolyn, watched him line up a putt under threatening, gusty skies. He was wearing a maroon sweater wrinkled like a worried forehead.

"If I had known," she said, shaking her pony-tailed head. "What that sweater looked like, I'd never have let Bob out the door with it this morning."

"We were leaving for the course and he said 'Maybe it'll get cold, I'd better grab a sweater.' He pulled it out of the drawer and we ran down the stairs. Oh boy."

Dickson was also wearing baby blue-and-white golf shoes and blue slacks. In this era of haute couture golfers, Dickson, with his clashing maroon sweater, was not exactly an Oleg Cassini paradigm.

"Bob does have," said Carolyn, blushing like a newlywed. "a blue shirt under that sweater."

The Dicksons have been married one month, and already Carolyn is experiencing the rigors of the professional golf tour. There is so much travel and so much pressure that she has so little time for domesticity.

"I pack an iron," she said. "Not a golf stick, but a pressing iron. And I do our clothes on motel floors. I guess I just missed that sweater."

The Dicksons, despite some inconveniences, lead a life of leisure compared to some young golfing couples, past and present. Dickson, who turned pro in January, was last year's U.S. and British Amateur champion. He is regarded one of the bright rookies on the tour. He also seems to have a generous sponsor, a Tulsa insurance company.

"We take planes from tournament to tournament," said Carolyn. "It's been great fun so far. But I don't feel very domestic. I like to cook, stuffed pork chops and casseroles especially, but you can't do that in motel rooms. I don't even make the beds. The maids do."

Chicago in 12-0 Romp Over Tigers

By HAL BOCK

A day full of Eddie Stanky is easy to take for a ballplayer who has just had a week full of sergeants.

So Tommy John and Tom McCraw, sprung from National Guard duty by weekend passes to spend Sunday with Stanky and the White Sox, led Chicago to a 12-0 romp over Detroit.

John pitched a five-hitter for his seventh straight victory and McCraw slammed three hits including a pair of doubles and scored twice.

Elsewhere in the American League Sunday, New York trimmed Oakland 4-2, California socked Washington 8-4, Cleveland topped Boston 7-5 in 10 innings, and Baltimore dropped Minnesota 6-4.

In the National League, New York blanked Houston 1-0, Pittsburgh tripped Philadelphia 5-2, Chicago whipped St. Louis 6-2, Los Angeles edged Atlanta 3-2 and Cincinnati dropped San Francisco 5-3.

McCraw and John, both members of an Indiana Air National Guard unit, are halfway through their annual two-week tour of duty at Alpena, Mich. They flew to Detroit for Sunday's game.

Bill Voss and Sandy Alomar, untroubled by military problems, helped John and McCraw carry off the Detroit maneuvers. Voss walloped a grand slam home run—his third major league homer and second in two days against the Tigers—and Alomar slapped four hits, stole three bases, and scored four runs.

L.R. Racquet Captures State Title

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — The Little Rock Racquet Club won the boys title and the Little Rock YWCA repeated as champion in the girls division in the Arkansas AA% swimming meet which ended Saturday.

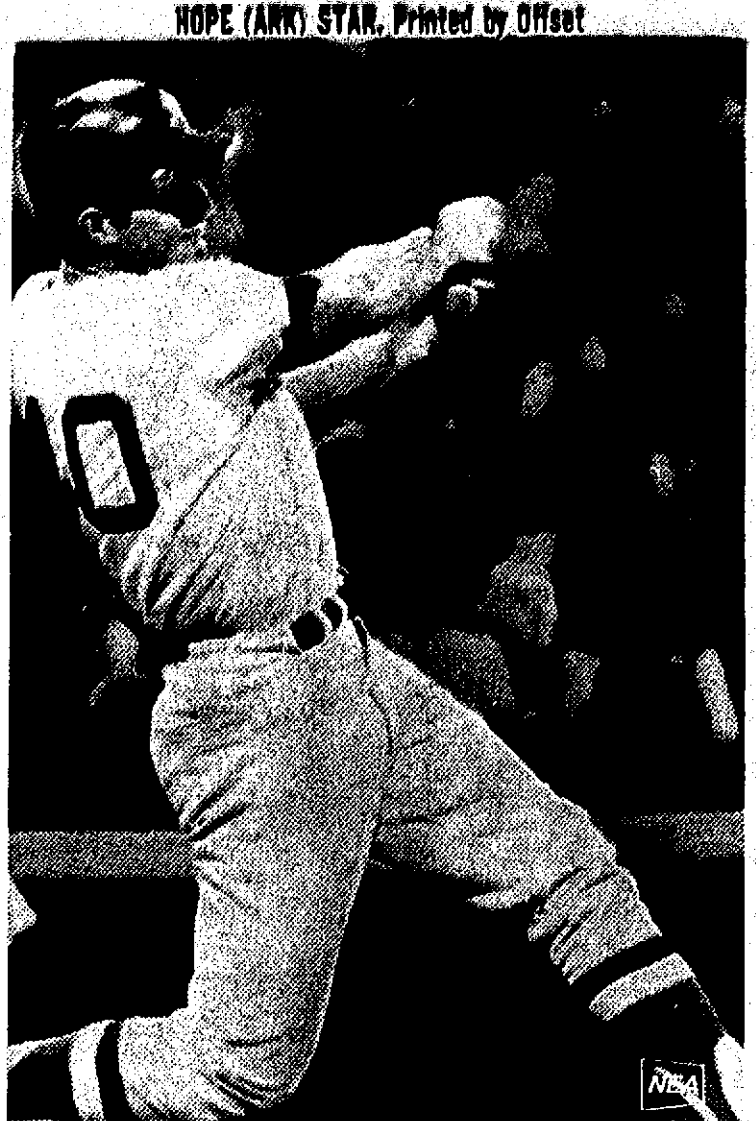

Pat Miles of the Racquet Club and Cheryl Darling of the Fayetteville Youth Center turned in outstanding individual performances.

Miles set three records in the meet plus one in a metric mile event on Thursday and Miss Darling set three records during Saturday's competition.

In boys team scoring the Racquet Club had 487½ points to 384 for defending champion Little Rock Boys Club. Hot Springs was third at 107.

In girls scoring, the Little Rock YWCA had 737½ points followed by the Little Rock Racquet Club at 316 and the Little Rock Boys Club Girls 201.

He also reset a lot of pins. At 16, he was already averaging a whopping 215 per game and had bowled three perfect games in league competition. But that summer Jack started

JACK'S HOPE — 'HOT' SUMMER

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Jack Connaughton is spending his summer days in places like Portland and Fresno and Tucson, all of which are a long way from his home town of Oconomowoc, Wis.

Connaughton, 22, recently graduated from La Crosse State (Wis.), where he became the national collegiate bowling champion. Last December, he traveled even farther from home, to Paris for the International Masters Championship. Chosen as the American amateur representative, Jack faced the top bowler from each of 29 countries and won the tournament.

The trip from Floyd Dunbar's bowling alley in Waukesha, Wis., to the Bowling de Paris was not without its bumps. Connaughton's father died in an auto accident when the boy was only five. Dunbar and his wife, Jack's grandparents, practically raised him in the bowling centers they owned.

"There were no pinboys or automatic setters then," he remembers, "so I'd bowl and then run down the alley and set the pins up. I did a lot of running."

So Jack figured if he could cut it in Paris why not in Portland and Fresno and Tucson and the other stops

Stockton Winner at Cleveland

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Cleveland (AP) — A check for $22,000 made confident Dave Stockton forget all about the oppressive heat.

"The hot weather bothered me. I felt horrible and dizzy," Stockton said Sunday after he won the Cleveland Open Golf Tournament his first tour triumph of the year.

The 26-year-old Californian staggered home with a one-over par 72, his worst round of the 72-hole event after earlier rounds of 69, 68 and 67. But his 276 total was two strokes better than rookie Bob Dickson of Tulsa, Okla. and eight strokes under par.

"I didn't feel well but I hit my drives absolutely perfect. I was able to make the big shots," the five-year pro said.

The first prize money boosted Stockton's winnings this year to $46,159. He won two tournaments last season and collected $54,333.

Stockton, whose best previous finish this year was a tie for sixth in the Dallas Open, carried a two-stroke lead into Sunday's final round.

along the Professional Bowlers Association summer tour.

"It's pretty expensive," he says, "because you have entry fees, hotels, travel. It takes about $250 to $300 a week to keep a bowler going on the pro tour. But if you're lucky, you and your sponsor can make money."

And if you're good enough. Jack Connaughton thinks he can make it big but if he doesn't he'll have something to fall back on—a degree in recreation management. Eventually, he intends to become either a director of student activities at a college or director of a community recreation program.

But first, he wants the chance to prove he's as competent among the professionals as he was among the amateurs.

Pitches Better, Enjoys It Less

By TOMMY THOMAS
NEA Sports Writer

NEW YORK — (NEA) — If pitching to major league hitters is becoming easier, Ray Sadecki doesn't notice it.

"I guess all the hitters see are fielders when they're at the plate," he says. "But from the mound, all I see is grass... lots of it between fielders."

The Giants' left-hander has been one of the forces of the current "hitting famine" but he has also been victimized by it. At one point, he lost four straight games when the Giants, supposedly the National League's premier slugger, failed to score even one run for him.

Last season the Kansas City native won his last six games to finish 12-6 with the best ERA of his career, 2.78. This year, Sadecki got off to a good start, going 6-3 before those four straight scoreless games.

"I turned around and I was 6-8 all of a sudden," he recalls. "It seems like it takes two months to win six games, then two weeks to lose six."

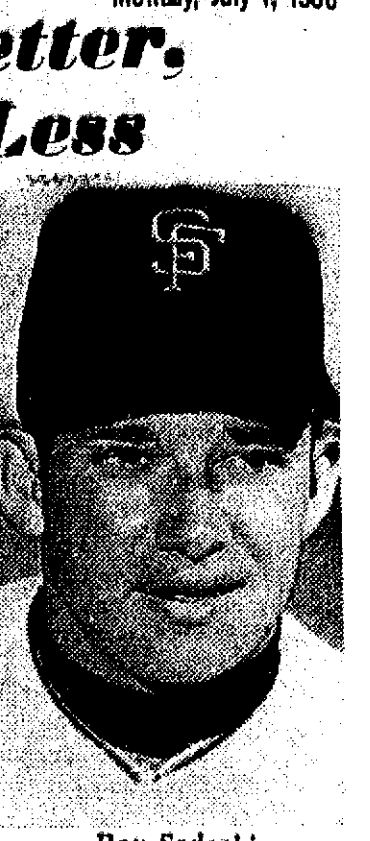

In his first 15 starts this season, he had given up only 32 earned runs, but his teammates had scored only 38 for Sadecki. So he had a losing record, though his ERA was below last season's average.

"Although I naturally prefer to have runs scored for me," he says, "I think I pitch better in the 1-0 games. A guy sometimes gets careless if he's got a big lead. You miss with the curve ball... ball one. Miss with the curve again... ball two. Then you think, 'Forget about hitting corners and get the fast ball over.' Suddenly you don't have a big lead any more. But in the close games, you can't afford to fool around."

"As for getting me runs, I know the batters are looking for hits and want them as much as I do. They have slumps, and the pitchers have slumps. However, when I have a bad day I can't try to improve the results until four days later, when I pitch again."

Sadecki thinks pitching will enable San Francisco to give the Cardinals a run for the pennant.

"We've got all the makings of a real winning streak going," he says. "I believe between Marichal, Perry, McCormick and myself (if I'm not being too overconfident)

Ray Sadecki we could possibly put together a long string. And don't forget, we led the league in ERA last year."

As for the hitting, or lack of it, Ray insists, "With the hot months coming on, you'll be seeing fewer shutouts and more high-scoring games. I know of no pitcher in the league who seriously thinks it's all of a sudden easier to get those guys out."

Perry's Team Wins Three Over Weekend

Perry's Trucker's baseball team won three more games over the weekend which makes its record seven victories against only a single loss.

Saturday night they beat DeKalb, Texas 10 to 3. Wayne Johnson was the winning hurler. Bill Lawrence led the batters with three hits; Jim Jordan, Delton Hatfield, Brint Odum and Wayne Johnson had two each.

Sunday the team traveled to Texarkana for a pair. In the first they beat the F.C.I. of Liberty Eyleau 9 to 5. Wayne Lowe won this one for the locals not only with his hurling but he got three hits. Gaylord Solomon also had three safeties while Jim Jordan had two.

Later Sunday afternoon Perry's got five runs in the last inning to down the Northeast Texas Legion All-Stars 6-1. Buddy Jordan was the winning hurler. Jim Jordan got three hits, Lowe, Solomon and Larry Thrash had two each.

Perry's next game is July 4 at Legion field here at 2 p.m. against the DeKalb team.

Cost of Subs Up $7 Million in Few Years

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy has awarded identically priced contracts to two shipyards for six new nuclear attack submarines, each costing about $7 million more than similar subs built in recent years.

While the prices of the contracts are the same—$107.4 million for three submarines from each company—the pacts have significantly different terms.

The Navy is at a loss to explain exactly how the identical awards came about but said the different types of contracts would be "mutually beneficial" to both the government and the shipyards.

Ingalls Shipbuilding Corp., and General Dynamics Corp., were signed to build three Sturgeon class nuclear attack submarines in two contracts announced simultaneously as the Navy wound up buying for the fiscal year ending Sunday at midnight.

Although it wasn't specified in the June 25 announcement, a spokesman said the contract to Ingalls of Pascagoula, Miss., was a "fixed price incentive," award while General Dynamics of Groton, Conn., received merely a letter contract.

This meant, he said, that Ingalls' margin of profit will be higher if it completes the three submarines for $107.4 million or less, than if it exceeds that price.

In the case of General Dynamics, however, the letter contract implies that the $107.4 million is not a fixed cost; rather, "the hope is that we can negotiate a lower price later," the spokesman said.

The reason given for the difference was only that "in the course of negotiations it was found to be mutually beneficial to both the government and the companies," he said.

The spokesman said he could not disclose the maximum margins of profits which might be possible under the awards.

The question of whether defense companies are receiving more than adequate profits from Pentagon orders has become a rather heated item in Congress in recent months.

The six subs under the total $214,833,000 program would cost slightly more than $35.8 million each.

The five previous Sturgeon class subs, of which General Dynamics built three and Ingalls built one, cost an average of $28.9 million each.

The Navy did not advertise for bids on the latest contracts. One other company—the Newport News, Va., shipyard—was considered for the work but lost out because its proposal was termed too costly.

The 3,800-ton vessels are equipped with the SUBROC (submarine rocket) which can launch a nuclear warhead from underwater to fly through the air, dive underwater again and detonate against a hostile submarine.

The 278-foot long craft also has four 21-inch torpedo tubes and glides along at 30 knots.

More Trouble in Store for Wilson

LONDON (AP) — More trouble loomed today for Prime Minister Harold Wilson in the wake of the Cabinet resignation of Ray Gunter, one of the Labor government's closest links with its trade union supporters.

The blunt-spoken Gunter, who served nearly four years in the cabinet as labor minister and recently at the power ministry, submitted his resignation Sunday night with a terse note that said:

"I have the feeling that the best service I can render to the folk whence I came is that I should obtain the freedom of the back benches and of the platform in the country."

Gunter had been associated with a cabinet faction which has chafed under Wilson's leadership. One of the most notable of that group, former Foreign Minister George Brown, resigned in March, charging that Wilson had assumed too much personal control over government operations.

The Times of London said Gunter's resignation reflected "disillusionment... in important sections of the labor movement."

Britain's trade unions have become increasingly restive in recent months, particularly because of the government's hold-down on wages.

The go-slow strike by the nation's railway workers entered its second week today. Pressing for higher wages, the workers

Only Praise for Biggest Aircraft

By JACK STILLMAN
Associated Press Writer

MARIETTA, Ga. AP — The successful flight of the world's biggest airplane proves there are practically no limits to construction of bigger planes, says Tom May, president of Lockheed-Georgia Co. But he says the world isn't ready for them.

The C5 Galaxy flew its first test flight Sunday. Although there were minor troubles, the Air Force and Lockheed-Georgia called the flight highly successful.

The C5 is being developed for the Air Force. Basically, it is a military plane, but the design can be changed to make it a commercial airplane.

May said, "We have preliminary plans for airplanes weighing over a million pounds. But it is fairly clear that the world is not quite ready for a commercial airplane of this size."

The C5 will carry 350 troops and all of their equipment. This one weighed 497,000 pounds on takeoff but is designed for more than 700,000 pounds.

"We like to talk about a commercial plane similar to the C5 which could carry nearly 1,000 passengers," May said at a news conference, "but the idea of carrying people on the flight deck, and freight in the hold, is extremely attractive to us."

May predicted that when the C5 becomes a commercial airplane, it probably will be used first as a freighter.

Future passenger jets will travel at speeds of between 1,500 and 2,000 miles an hour, and May said the relatively slow speed of the C5 would be a handicap in a passenger airplane.

BERRY'S WORLD

By JIM CROSSLEY

How fares the horse?

Well, the horse is getting elbowed around like most of the flora and fauna these days.

Los Angeles, with its mushroom growth and wide expanse, seems to be a good place to look to see what other cities will be going through in their futures. How about the nags of L.A.?

The heritage of the old West, plus a jigger of status symbolism—they're a two-horse family, Debby!—has long made the equestrian arts a colorful and rather important part of the coast city's life.

Los Angeles County now has 160 miles of its own bridle trails and on the when-we-get-the-money list is a master plan for a total of 700.

A count of withers a couple of years ago came up with a figure of 90,000 horses, valued at $30 million, in the county. That's privately owned, so-called "pleasure horses"—what a name!

Even so, the horse isn't faring too well despite its numbers. It is gradually being cornered in a position occupied by the family's weekend outboard boat.

First, the horse that is stashed in the back yard is getting more and more neighbors upset by its presence.

Second, with land spaces being so rapidly entombed under a mad dash parking lots and spreading housing developments, horse owners, in order to find a place to ride for a day, are having to use vans or trailers to haul their animals miles away in pursuit of the open spaces. And that looks like the pattern for the future.

Equestrian Trails, Inc., a statewide nonprofit organization of California horsemen, sets the number of riding horses in the state at more than 375,000. It increased 20 per cent in four years and represents half a billion in money spent in a year, counting everything.

In view of the importance of this type of recreation, Los Angeles is trying to fit the horse into the city in several ways.

There's an ambitious scheme for an equestrian center in Griffith Park to provide for horse shows, rodeos, polo, training horses, learning to ride and riding. Barns would permanently stable 500 horses. There are 43 miles of riding trails already in the park.

Under discussion are stricter zoning laws regulating the keeping of horses in nonincorporated parts of the county. Residential lots much larger than now permitted would be required, to cut down neighbors' objections. Most of the 77 municipalities making up Los Angeles already have tightened up their regulations, some of them banning horses altogether, thus, in effect, dividing into horse and nonhorse areas.

On the prohorse side, a number of subdivisions have opened with their layouts specifically aimed at attracting horse owners. They offer such things as large lots, or cluster housing with central community stables, or equestrian centers the miniature of the one proposed for Griffith Park. Some subdividers even incorporate bridle trails as permanent easements in their tracts.

Shrinking daily, either subdivided or closed off by previously co-operative owners, are the dozens of miles of undeveloped suburban trails which were left over from the days when the land was rural and which used to be handy for many horsemen. To offset this, the state has as its aim a California-wide trail system, some of which is now operating.

So fares the horse. Nationally, there are supposed to be about six million riding horses, double the number in 1959. The herd increases as riding places become more replete with their layouts specifically aimed at attracting horse owners. They offer such things as large lots, or cluster and people in its future.

ROMANCE OF THE BRIDLE TRAIL is getting a buffet in cities. Los Angeles, at least, fights to retain it.

DeGaulle Forces Gain in Landslide

By LOUIS NEVIN
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — After France's biggest election landslide in 49 years President Charles de Gaulle had a mandate today to repair the economic damage of weeks of labor and social strife and to carry out a sweeping reform of France's industrial and educational systems.

The voters in the final round of the two-stage National Assembly elections gave the Gaullists and their allies a majority of more than 200 seats in the 487-seat legislature.

There has been no such landslide in French parliamentary history since the 1919 victory of a nationalist coalition. It was also a crushing setback to the Communists and other opposition forces.

Premier Georges Pompidou said the election results showed a "defensive reaction" of the people "against totalitarianism," the campaign talk of Gaullism "totalitarian communism," coming after the great student and labor upheaval in May.

Pompidou brought an overwhelming response from the middle class. But Pompidou warned that the government still faces "difficulties which are going to be enormous, difficulties that arise from the crisis and which we must now try to overcome."

Student disorders in the Latin Quarter of Paris Saturday and Sunday nights were a reminder of the problems facing the regime.

One of them is reform of the antiquated educational system, promised students after their rebellion in May touched off riots, disorders and three weeks of industrial strikes which paralyzed economic life.

Another major problem is the bill for widespread wage increases granted to end the strikes. The wage hikes also threaten inflation and higher prices which in turn would bring demands for still more in the pay envelopes.

Pompidou and De Gaulle have given no details of their future program to combat these problems. But they did hope that the proportions of the election victory would help restore international confidence in French stability and halt the run on the franc which has been cutting into the government's resources for weeks.

Results of the first-round voting on June 23, in which a majority was required for election, indicated a Gaullist majority in the assembly. But there was no anticipation of the overwhelming proportions the victory took.

Interior Minister Raymond Marcellin announced that the Gaullist Democratic Union for the Republic, the UDR won 299 seats in the assembly, or a majority of 111 without any allies.

In addition, the Independent Republicans, who have always supported the Gaullists although differing at times on matter of policy, won 53 seats. There were also 11 independent rightists elected, and a number of them may pledge their support to the Gaullists when the new assembly meets July 11.

Against this impressive array, the opposition could only muster 122 elected. This included 33 Communists, a lost of 40 seats; 57 members of the non-Communist Leftist Federation, a loss of 61; the centrist party Party of Progress and Modern Democracy 29, a loss of 10, and three independent leftists.

Ballotting in two Pacific island districts to complete the assembly will be held later this month. They are Tahiti and Wallis and Fortuna Islands.

One of 15 Passengers Hijacks Plane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The wife of Cuban-born pilot George Prellezo pleaded to visit him in a Havana jail today as Southeast Airlines prepared to retrieve its hijacked airliner.

Airline President Irvin L. Jones, Jr., who said the Cuban government had promised the safe return of the plane's other occupants, told newsmen a substitute pilot would be flown to Havana today. The airliner, hijacked over the Florida Keys Saturday by one of its 15 passengers, was to be flown to Key West this afternoon.

The other crew members, identified by the airlines only as stewardess A. Kimball and copilot Dave Martin of Miami, are to be returned with the passengers and the plane.

Mac's an Involved Mahon

By JOAN GROSSBY
NEA Entertainment Editor
NEW YORK — (NEA) — Ed McMahon has, sometime or other in his life, frittered away a useless minute or two. But probably not since he was a child-bound baby.

"The busier you are, the more you can get done," the genial gentleman said. And he must be right because he makes five appearances a week with Johnny Carson, five a week with his own Snap Judgment, does a regular segment on Monitor, looks after various business interests, including a talent agency, a production company turning out what he calls "mini-specials," and Unicorn Creations, which makes paper products, postcards, stationery, greeting cards and bulletin boards marked "Back to Me, Baby." He is also president of the Alumni Association of Catholic University and, as such, is involved in the benefit being planned for erection of a communications center for the Washington university. The benefit on Sept. 16, an all-star show, will be the last event in the Capitol Theater, which will then be demolished.

"We're trying to get in touch with everyone who ever played the Capitol, and we think it will be a very nostalgic event."

McMahon says he had second thoughts when he was offered the chance at the presidency of the alumni association. "I find it very difficult to refuse things. Once I do something, then I am involved. I can't do it in short strokes."

He was spending a few hours in his NBC office. But he has another one because "I am doing so many other things not connected with the work here I couldn't in conscience do them out of NBC."

And that's the kind of rare and honorable man he is.

Ed McMahon
A very busy man.

Stinky Davis has made it in the world. In his particular part of the world, Hawaii, Jan. 19 has been proclaimed his day.

"I don't know if that means I'll have to go back home every Jan. 19 or not," he says.

In the rest of the world he is known as a fine tenor whose vast, multi-language repertoire includes everything from operatic arias to Tahitian chants.

He is more properly known as Charles K. L. Davis, the K. L. standing for Keonalaualani, which means "fragrant leaves of Heaven."

"When I was in school, my school mates couldn't pronounce Keonalaualani, so they took the meaning of it and called me Stinky."

Davis, born in Honolulu to an English father (who settled there during World War

When Ed Sullivan made a trip to Moscow with representative American talent, he took Davis along with him. He is about to try his hand and vocal chords at musical comedy, playing Freddy (who sings "On the Street Where You Live") in "My Fair Lady" in Hawaii.

He has been singing since he was a child, getting his first experience as a church organist who doubled as the choir. "Most times hardly anyone showed up, so I sang alone a lot." When he decided he wanted to be a professional singer, his family wasn't overjoyed. "They didn't quite approve. But I made the grade when I won the Metropolitan auditions."

Perfect Fourth of July Treat

Strawberry shortcake to celebrate the Fourth.

In old New England, the traditional Fourth of July menu always included fresh boiled salmon, new potatoes, garden peas and fresh strawberries.

Right now, California is lush with strawberries for everyone to enjoy. So let's make a strawberry shortcake to celebrate the Fourth—a slightly new type of shortcake made with fresh orange juice and orange peel, plus orange juice and peel in the whipped cream.

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE FOR THE FOURTH OF JULY

2 pints fresh California strawberries
1/2 cup sugar
2 cups (1 pint) heavy cream
2 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon grated orange peel
1/4 cup orange juice
Orange Sponge Cake Layers (given below)

Reserve a few strawberries for garnish; slice remainder, mix with 1/2-cup sugar and chill 30 minutes. Whip cream with 2 tablespoons sugar, orange peel and juice until stiff. Layer sponge cakes, sliced strawberries and whipped cream. Garnish with reserved strawberries.

Orange Sponge Cake Layers (makes two 8-inch layers): Beat 5 egg yolks with 1/2-cup sugar, 1 tablespoon grated orange peel and 1/4-teaspoon salt. Beat in 1/2-cup orange juice until light and fluffy. Blend in 1 cup sifted cake flour. Beat 5 egg whites with 1/4-teaspoon cream of tartar until soft peaks form. Add 1/2-cup sugar, beating until stiff but not dry. Fold in egg-yolk mixture. Pour into 2 ungreased 8x2-inch layer cake pans. Bake in 350-degree (moderate) oven 25 minutes until cake tests done. Cool in inverted cake pans on wire rack.

Coats Are Longer

Fashion is now reversing itself. For fall the new length is the middle of the calf—no longer will middle of the thigh be stressed. Some designers insist that maxi or midi length looks old. Others maintain it is young and that it elongates the figure. This new length is shown mainly in coats with short dresses beneath, or as button-on skirts or pants. You'll even be seeing this new length in pants.

Government in New Year, Deficit Small

WASHINGTON (AP) — Armed with higher taxes and a congressional mandate to cut spending, the federal government headed into a new fiscal year today with the prospect of compiling its smallest deficit in three or perhaps four years.

The budget deficit in the fiscal year which ended at midnight Sunday ran to about $25 billion by the administration's own estimate—the fourth largest in history.

President Johnson gave the government its deficit-cutting tools last Friday when he signed the 10 per cent income tax surcharge and accepted at the same time the $6 billion in spending cuts he doesn't want.

Americans will begin paying higher taxes in paychecks with holding after July 13.

The tax boost and spending cut could drop the deficit for the new fiscal year to as low as $2.5 billion if present spending estimates remain unchanged, an unlikely prospect.

The government last ran a deficit that low in fiscal 1965 at $1.1 billion. The red ink rose to $3.7 billion in 1966 and to $8.8 billion in the fiscal year which ended one year ago.

The only official word from the administration is that the deficit in the new year should move to well below the $8 billion projected last January.

Spending for the Vietnam war at about $27 billion caused the large deficit in the fiscal year just ended. War costs are now figured at about $28.4 billion in the new fiscal year.

WANTED TO PAY TAXES
PHOENIX (AP) — State income tax officials have found a happy taxpayer.

Tax chief Robert Merrill reported a Phoenix man sent in a $10 check with a notation: "Although I owe no state tax, I feel obligated to help pay the cost of operating the state government."

A check of the man's tax return revealed that he actually owed $5 in tax. Merrill said the whole amount will be tossed in the pot with other tax monies without asking the man for a corrected tax form.

U.S. Sales Abroad to Be Better

By CARL HARTMAN
Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — Sales of American goods abroad should get a badly needed boost from wide-ranging tariff cuts made today in 20 countries as a result of the 1967 Kennedy Round agreements.

But emergency measures decreed by President Charles de Gaulle's government as a result of the May upheaval cast a shadow over prospects for freer world trade.

Experts cannot estimate in dollars how much advantage the United States will get. There are too many small elements that could change the results. But the increased trade could help substantially toward reducing the $500 million annual deficit in America's foreign exchange account.

It is this deficit that drains away American gold reserves and makes people wonder about the future of the dollar.

American exports have been hampered by rising costs at home which have made them more expensive and less competitive in world markets.

The last figures compiled show that for two months the United States has been buying more goods abroad than it sells. This is unusual and discouraging for U.S. economists.

Normally American exports are much greater than imports. The deficits in the past have come from Vietnam war spending, foreign aid, and the money paid out by U.S. investors and travelers abroad.

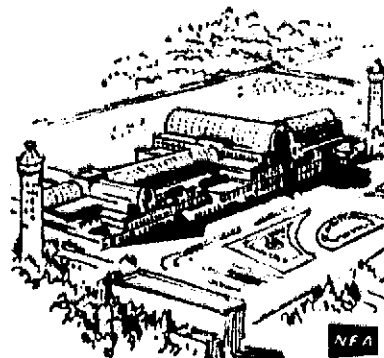

The Kennedy Round cuts took four years of negotiation. They are the most far-reaching ever undertaken in trade negotiations. U.S. experts estimate that they will eventually cut tariffs by an average of 35 per cent on $32 billion worth of goods now moving every year among non-Communist countries. Of this, more than $8 billion worth are American industrial exports.

Farm products are not so much affected.

To prevent sudden shocks to industry, the cuts were spaced out over five years—20 per cent a year. The United States made its first cut last Jan. 1. Other countries decided to make two cuts today, including Britain, Japan, Canada, the six members of the European Common Market France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg, as well as Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, Spain, Brazil, India, Pakistan, Ceylon, Nigeria and Trinidad-Tobago.

The six Common Market countries today are also ending their last tariffs against one another's industrial goods and unifying their tariffs on imports from outside the economic community.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The first large prefabricated building was designed by Joseph Paxton's Crystal Palace in London, home of the first World's Fair, says The World Almanac. The 1,851-foot exhibition hall, the length symbolizing the year of the fair, was made of mass-produced standard sections of cast iron and glass and assembled in six months. The exposition over, the building was easily taken down and re-erected at Sydenham, England.

Really Was an Alligator

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Archie Long, a gardener at a San Antonio apartment complex, thought there was some mistake.

"These two girls came up sort of casually and told me there was an alligator in the pool," Long said. "I told them it must be a plastic one. But they said it wasn't because it moved."

Long took a look and found a live alligator, five-feet long. Long slipped a noose around the "gator and pulled it onto the concrete.

The reptile was taken to the alligator gardens at Brackenridge Park.

Stock Selling, Buying Is Under Probe

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Securities and Exchange Commission, in one of its rare open hearings, is investigating the cost of buying and selling stocks in the United States.

In a series of hearings opening today, the SEC expects to question staff experts from the New York Stock Exchange on the minimum fee structure under which the major exchanges set the cost of buying and selling stock.

The SEC, which has held public hearings only once or twice over the last 20 years, also will check into the practice of fee splitting among major brokerage houses.

Just last week, in an apparent attempt to strengthen their planned defense of minimum commissions, the New York and American exchanges voted to eliminate fee splitting and grant a discount on fees for large transactions.

The SEC said the initial phase of its hearings will run through July and will be devoted to gathering facts on minimum rates.

In August, the SEC will turn its attention to economic and legal aspects.

Included in the first phase will be an examination into who pays the fees and commissions, how they are computed and how they are distributed and shared.

The Justice Department has challenged the entire system of minimum fees and contends they should be set by competition. If anything, a maximum fee is needed to protect investors from excessive costs, the Justice Department maintains.

In scheduling the hearings, the SEC opened the entire minimum rate schedule for scrutiny and suggested an interim reduction of fees by the New York exchange to take effect Sept. 15.

As an option the exchange could eliminate minimum fees on transactions exceeding $50,000 and open the way for cuts through negotiation between the parties.

Other national exchanges were asked to consider cuts but no deadline or specific proposals were made by the SEC. Normally, the New York exchange sets the pace for the industry.

The interim schedule proposed by the commission could result in substantial savings to investors, especially on large orders.

THE A FRAME PRINCIPLE is used in HASSIM down to within four feet of the floor, at which point two low stone walls form the base of the structure. This design device alleviates the headroom problems inherent in A frames at the side walls. Front wall is of wood frame, glass and sliding glass doors for an unrestricted view of the vacation land outdoors. Almost half the front deck is covered by the overhanging roof. A side porch contains outdoor laundry equipment and a stall shower. An interesting method of providing natural light in the kitchen and bath is by use of plastic domes. A third bedroom can be finished on the second floor. A full basement in which a heating unit can be installed is part of the structure. There are 962 square feet on the first floor and 324 on the second. Architect is Rudolph Nigro, 89 E. Jericho Turnpike, Mineola, N.Y. 11501.
